They say they were promised a share by Roesch, but never got even the appointment of a street-

They declare angrily that they want Barney Rourke to explain. Ten of the kickers, headed by Fred. Seelig, got together and demanded in writing that Mr. Rourke, as Presi-manded in writing that Mr. Rourke, as President, call a meeting of the John J. O'Brien Association to-night.

"Certainly," Barnoy is reported to have replied. "I'll call the meeting, but if you gentlemen taink you can turn this club against Tarumany Hall you will find yourselves mistaken. Good day."

There are ten declared kickers. Mr. Rourke will have one hundred trusty henchmen on hand to outvote them, or even to throw them out of the window, it is said, as the exigencies of the occasion may require.

It was a very dry day for Mr. Rourke's constituents yesteriay. On other Sundays saloons have been generally open in de Ate. Mr. Rourke's opponents circulated the story that the saloons were closed because "Barney doesn't stand high with the new Superlintendent of Police," and that his influence at Headquarters was gone.

TO ELECT SACHEMS TO-NIGHT.

Local polithmans say they cannot recall a Presidential year when political matters were so quiet as this year, but things "are beginning to pick up." Leaders are busily arranging slates for the conling conventions, and for to-night, for instance, two most interesting events are on the calendar. Tammany Hall will hold its annual election, when thirteen Sacheirs (who in turn elect a Grand Sachem), a Secretary, a Saganore and a Wiskinkie will be chosen. The old ticket of last year will be re-elected, it is said.

The mission has been one of the most striking ever had in Montreal. During its prog- City. ress over five thousand people signed the total adstinence pledge and fifty-six converts were received into the Church. The lathers strongly denounced the Montreal civic authorities for their apathy in not enforcing the liquor laws. The denunciation was made in the presence of Mayor McShane and a number of other prominent city offi-cials and produced a great sensation. The effect was so great that Mayor McShane and other officials were led to sign the piedge.
